Rajakaryapravina Mr. N.S. Subba Rao, Vice-Chancellor, Mysore University, phoned me up yesterday and stated that he felt that the order permitting him to retire could have been more appropriately worded, as the Vice-Chancellor enjoyed the rank of a Minister. He sai that he would make a formal reference to Govt. in the matter. Although there is nothing ~~obnoxious~~ really objectionable in the order issued regarding Mr. Subba Rao's retirement, I agree with him that it could have been better worded. The order runs as follows:-

> "The Govt. direct that Rajakaryapravina Mr. N.S. Subba Rao, Vice-Chancellor, Mysore University, be permitted to retire from service with effect from the 14th March 1942 onthe expiry of the present extension of service."

It would perhaps have been better if the words "Govt. direct" had been omitted from the order, in whic case it would have read as under:-

> "Rajakaryapravina Mr. N.S. Subba Rao, Vice-Chancellor, Mysore University, is permitted to retire from service with effect from the 14th March 1942 on the expiry of the present extension of service."

There is no specific procedure adopted in such cases. Mr. Subba Rao feels that as the Vice-Chancellor is appointed by H.H. the Chancellor, it is but appropriate that the retirement also should be in his name. It is seen from the Govt. Orders relating to the retirement of Dr. Metcalf and the appointment of Mr. Subba Rao ~~xx~~ as Vice-Chancellor that no reference is made to the appointment or retirement being under the orders of H.H. the Chancellor, although Sec. 12 of University Regulation directs that "The Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by and shall hold during the pleasure of H.H. the Chancellor". It is therefore necessary to adopt in future a general procedure relating to the appointment and retirement of Vice-Chancellor. If approved, the following form will invariably be adopted in future:-

"His Highness the Chancellor is pleased to appoint Mr. ..... as Vice-Chancellor, Mysore University, from ....."

"His Highness the Chancellor is pleased to permit Mr. ..... Vice-Chancellor to retire from service Mysore University, with effect from ....."

The above proposal is for orders.
